SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Audio Home Recording Act of 1992 (the "Act"), Pub. L. 102-563, requires manufacturers and importers to pay royalties on digital audio recording devices and media that are distributed in the United States. 17 U.S.C. 1003. The royalties are deposited with the Copyright Office for further distribution to interested copyright parties who file claims with the Copyright Office each year during January and February. 17 U.S.C. 1005, 1007.

The Act provides that the royalties are divided between two funds: the Sound Recordings Fund and the Musical Works Fund. The Sound Recordings Fund receives 66 2/3% of the royalties and the Musical Works Fund receives the remaining 33 1/3%. These fees are allocated further to specific subfunds.

The Sound Recordings Fund consists of four subfunds: the Featured Recording Artists Subfund, the Copyright Owners Subfund, the Nonfeatured Musicians Subfund, and the Nonfeatured Vocalists Subfund. The two subfunds created for the benefit of nonfeatured artists receive a total of 4% of the funds allocated to the Sound Recordings Fund. Of the remaining royalty fees in the Sound Recordings Fund, 60% is allocated to the Copyright Owners Subfund and 40% is allocated to the Featured Recording Artists Subfund. Similarly, the royalty fees allocated to the Musical Works Fund are equally divided between two subfunds, the Publishers Subfund and the Writers Subfund. 17 U.S.C. 1006(b).

Distribution of these fees may occur in one of two ways. If the claimants within each subfund agree among themselves how to distribute the royalty fees, the Librarian of Congress distributes the royalties to the claimants in accordance with their negotiated agreement.¹ 17 U.S.C. 1007(b). Alternatively, if the parties cannot reach an agreement, the Librarian of Congress must convene a copyright arbitration royalty panel ("CARP") to determine the distribution of royalty payments.² 17 U.S.C. 1007(c). Before commencing a distribution proceeding, however, the Copyright Office must first ascertain whether a controversy exists concerning the distribution of the royalty fees among the copyright claimants to the ¹The claimants to the royalty fees in the Sound Recordings Funds have negotiated a universal settlement agreement among themselves for each year as to the proportionate share that each claimant receives from the subfunds. These agreements have made it unnecessary for the Librarian to convene a CARP and have allowed him to distribute all royalty fees allocated to the Sound Recordings Funds during 1993 to 1998.

²In 1996, the Librarian convened a CARP to determine the distribution of the 1992, 1993, and 1994 Musical Works Funds. See 62 FR 6558 (February 12, 1997). The Librarian's final order determining the distribution of these funds based upon the CARP's findings was appealed to and recently upheld by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

funds available for distribution. 17 U.S.C. 803(d) and 1007(b).

II. Ascertainment of Controversy and Notices of Intent to Participate

Section 251.45(a) of the Copyright Office regulations, title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations, requires that:

[T]he Librarian of Congress shall, after the time period for filing claims, publish in the Federal Register a notice requesting each claimant on the claimant list to negotiate with each other a settlement of their differences, and to comment by a date certain as to the existence of controversies with respect to the royalty funds described in the notice. Such notice shall also establish a date certain by which parties wishing to participate in the proceeding must file with the Librarian a notice of intention to participate.

The purpose of the negotiation requirement is to make all of the claimants within each fund/subfund aware of each other and to encourage active participation and open discussion on how to resolve each party's claim. The Copyright Office has compiled a list of claimants who have filed timely a claim to either of the two subfunds comprising each of the 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 Musical Works Funds.³ Claimants must use these lists in negotiating settlement agreements concerning the distribution of the royalty fees.

At the conclusion of the negotiation period, the claimants must submit to the Copyright Office comments identifying the existence of any settlement agreements and the existence of any remaining controversies. Participants must identify each subfund in the Musical Works Funds by year and indicate whether any controversy remains over the distribution of the royalty fees in that subfund or whether an agreement has been reached. In the case of an agreement, the notice must list the name of all claimants covered by the agreement. Participants must advise the Copyright Office of any controversy by the end of the comment period. The Office will not consider controversies which are brought to its attention after the close of the comment period.

Each claimant who intends to participate in the distribution of the 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 Musical Works Funds must also file a notice of intent to participate. The notice must identify each year and each subfund in which the copyright owner has an interest. Failure to file a timely Notice of Intent may preclude a party from participating in the distribution proceeding. The notices are due July 6, 1999.

III. Consolidation of Proceedings

Section 801(d) of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C., as amended by the Technical Amendments to the Satellite Home Viewer Act of 1994, Pub. L. 105-80, states that "[t]he Librarian of Congress, upon the recommendation of the Register of Copyrights, . . . shall reimburse the arbitrators presiding in distribution proceedings at such intervals and in such manner as the Librarian shall provide by regulation. . . . Payments to the arbitrators shall be considered reasonable costs incurred by the Library of Congress and the Copyright Office for purposes of section 802(h)(1)." Funds to pay the arbitrators come from the royalty funds under consideration in the distribution proceeding. Because there are insufficient funds available from the Musical Works Fund for any single year to cover the projected cost of an arbitration proceeding that would require oral testimony, the Copyright Office is consolidating the consideration of the distribution of the 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 Musical Works Funds into a single proceeding in order to have sufficient funds to meet its financial obligations to the arbitrators.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 40-8681]

Notice of Consideration of a License Amendment for International Uranium (USA) Corporation's White Mesa Uranium Mill and an Opportunity for a Hearing

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) has received, by letter dated March 2, 1999, an application from International Uranium (USA) Corporation ("IUSA") to amend Source Material License No. SUA-1358 to allow for the receipt and processing of uranium-bearing material removed from various sites in the St. Louis, Missouri area. These sites are being remediated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in accordance with its responsibilities under the Formerly-Utilized Sites Remedial Action Program (FUSRAP). Under the proposed license amendment, IUSA would process material shipped from the St. Louis area in its White Mesa uranium mill in Blanding, Utah, to recover usable uranium. IUSA would dispose of the tailings, or byproducts of this process in the existing 11(e)2 mill tailings pile at the site. This FUSRAP material from the St. Louis sites is considered to be an "alternate feed" material, i.e., an input material for uranium extraction that is different from natural ores containing uranium. Prior to the issuance of the amendment, NRC will have made findings required by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and NRC's regulations.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: James E. Kennedy, Uranium Recovery and Low-Level Waste Branch, Division of Waste Management, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555. Telephone (301)-415-6668, e-mail jek1@nrc.gov.
