

Webster-Jonathan-20050314130005

To: Julie L. Sigal
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date: 03/14/2005

From: Jonathan Webster

Comment:

The Copyright office should provide a way for copyright holder or those with power of attorney to maintain a record of their address. If in a reasonable time frame the copyright holder does not maintain his/her address, the protected work should become public domain.